Present Simple, interrogative

To ask questions in the present simple, we use the auxiliary do and the base form of the verb.

Do your sisters work on the farm?* Yes, they do. / No, they don't.

For the third person singular, we use the auxiliary does and the base form of the verb.

Does your brother work there, too?* Yes, he does. / No, he doesn't.

1 Listen and fill in the blanks. 2

1. _____ your dad _____ the cows?
   Yes, he does. He milks the cows in the morning and in the evening.
2. _____ you _____ to the park?
   No, I don't. But I go to the movies every weekend!

✦ Read the answers and write the questions.

1. Does Katie collect the eggs in the afternoon?
   Yes, she does. Katie collects the eggs in the afternoon.
2. _____
   No, she doesn't. Lauren doesn't brush horses every day.
3. _____
   Yes, they do. Katie and Lauren go to school.
4. _____
   No, she doesn't. Katie doesn't play video games after school.
5. _____
   Yes, they do. The girls clean their rooms on Saturdays.