My favorite fictional character is Indiana Jones, the principal character from the movie 'Raiders of the Lost Ark'. Let me tell you about him...

Indiana Jones is American, his real name is Henry Jones Jr, but his nickname is Indiana. He was born on July 1st 1899, in Princeton, New Jersey. He is married to Marion and he has a son: Mutt.

He is an archeologist. He teaches Archeology in an American university, but he spends most of this time in some of his adventures around the world.

He is tall and muscular. He has short brown hair, hazel eyes, and a scar on his chin. He is very good- looking. At university, Henry Jones Jr. is a professor and he wears a formal suit and glasses. But when he transforms into "Indiana" he always wears the same worn-out clothes: leather jacket, khaki shirt and trousers, boots and his hat. He even has a whip!!

Indiana is very intelligent, and also brave and noble. He can speak many languages, and he likes reading very much. He also likes visiting exotic places, and he loves adventures, but he hates snakes.

I love Indiana Jones, I'm his number one fan!
