

Malala Yousafzai's Inspirational Speech

What was Malala's strong opinion of her speech?

a) To remain silent and wait to be killed by the Taliban

- b) To speak up and, then, to be killed.
-
- A collage of various objects including an easel, paint, a bowl, a box of crayons, a laptop, and colorful letters. The objects are arranged in a way that suggests a creative or artistic process, with the text 'b) To speak up and, then, to be killed.' prominently displayed in the center.

a) Yes, because she was shot by the Taliban.

b) No, because it is the story of millions of girls.

a) Because she represents all those girls who can't study.

b) Because she is a girl from Pakistan.

a) It is time for parents to stop sending kids to school.

b) It is time to make a change and encourage equal education for boys and girls.