IDIOMS

Circle the correct colour in these sentences.

a) He was caught yellow- / red-handed with the money in his bag when he was leaving the bank he robbed.

b) Stephen phoned out of the blue / black, haven't spoken to him in over three months! I didn't expect that.

c) They come to visit once in a blue / yellow moon. In my opinion, they should visit their parents more often.

d) I was really green / orange with envy when I realized they bought a new car.

e) When she has the blues / greens, it's difficult to cheer her up.

f) His excuses made me see red / white! I started shouting and arguing with him.