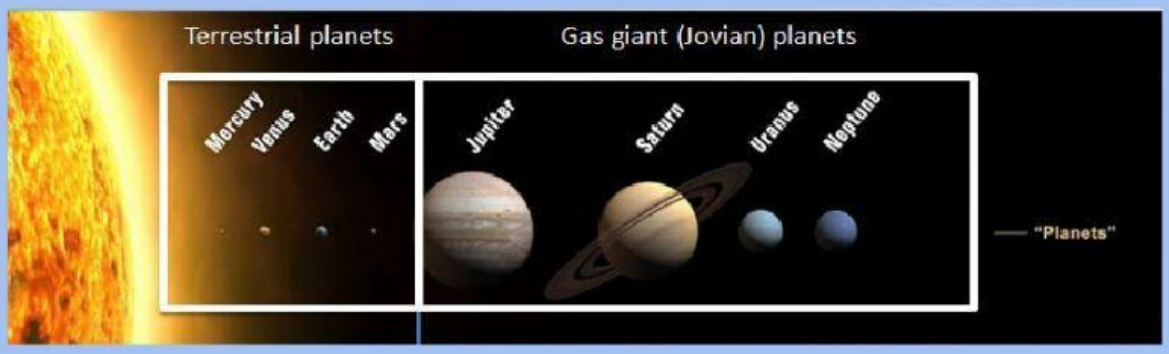
Terrestrial and Gaseous planets



In the boxes beside the description below type T for Terrestrial and G for Gaseous planets

Are made of solids like rocks, metal

A spaceship can not land on it

They are relatively cooler

Do not have rings

They are relatively large

Are made primarily of gas, mostly hydrogen

They are closer to the sun

They have rings

They have solid surfaces