Let's learn some idioms!

Match the Word pairs in bold to their definitions.

a- Turn a lot in bed because you cannot sleep.

b- In different places.

c- Sometimes but not often.

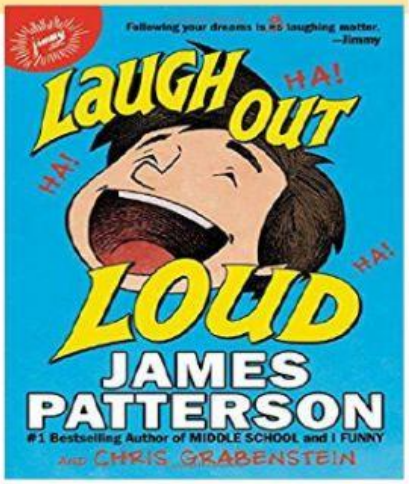
d- Taking everything into consideration.

e- A member of one's family.

f- Completely safe and without injury.

g- Calm, not interrupted by problems or noise.

h- Small things



1- How can I refuse to give him money when he's my own flesh and blood? ------

2- After hours of waiting for the rescue team, the climber arrived safe and sound.-----

3- A: "Where have you been today?"

B: "Oh, you know, here and there" -----

4- We collected various bits and pieces from my grandparents' life and presented it to them on their 50th wedding anniversary. -----

5- I had a terrible night; I kept tossing and turning in my bed until finally the sun came up. -----

6- There are a few things about my new job that irritate me, but by and large I'm grateful to have it. ----

7- I can't stand the constant noise from the construction workers; I need some peace and quiet.----

8- We don't see each other very often, but every now and again we'll meet up for a coffee. ----