

03 Match the Key Words on the left with their meanings on the right. Then, use them to complete the sentences below.

- |                 |                                                                                                 |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. gather       | a. a person that puts their money into something in the hope of earning profit in the long-term |
| 2. motivation   | b. not content or happy with something                                                          |
| 3. investor     | c. to come together; assemble or accumulate                                                     |
| 4. resign       | d. to pass responsibility to someone else                                                       |
| 5. dissatisfied | e. enthusiasm for doing something                                                               |
| 6. hand over    | f. to voluntarily leave a job or office                                                         |

1. Lots of people _____ in my city last weekend to protest against police brutality.
2. We were _____ with the response we received from our local politician.
3. There is a growing _____ for businesses to become more eco-friendly.
4. In my country, the government _____ power to the winners of the elections six months after the vote.
5. Most protest movements work better if they have _____ behind them.
6. A political scandal forced the president to _____.

04 Think about an issue happening in your country that you would like to protest about. If you could start a movement, what would you name it? What would you hope to achieve by demonstrating? Write some notes in the space below and share them with a classmate.

