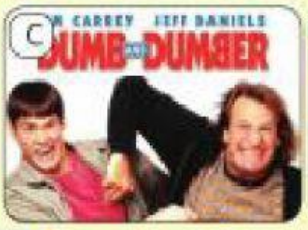
HELP ME, DOCTOR!

My life is very interesting. I watch cartoons. My mother says, "Don't watch cartoons, Eddie. You are not a child." "I watch horror films. My father says, "You shouldn't watch them. You are a child." I watch dramas. My brother says, "Don't watch dramas. They make you sad." I like sci-fi movies. My sister says, "I think they're really boring, Eddie." I go to bed late. My grandmother says, "You should sleep early. You are a student." I go to bed early. My friends say, "Are you a chicken?" I sleep all day. My grandfather says, "You are a lazy boy. Wake up!" Tell me, doctor! What should I do?

1. What does Eddie's sister think about sci-fi movies?

A) She thinks they are not exciting.
B) She likes sci-fi movies.
C) She thinks they are frightening.
D) She prefers them because they aren't boring.

2. According to his father, what type of movie shouldn't Eddie watch?



3. Who says Eddie shouldn't sleep late?

A) His mother
B) His father
C) His grandmother
D) His friends

4. We can understand from the text that ----.

A) according to his grandfather, Eddie is hardworking.
B) Eddie doesn't like cartoons.
C) Eddie's brother thinks that dramas aren't funny.
D) Eddie's friends sleep early.

5. Write a phrase that can replace the underlined sentence.

_____

6. According to his brother, why shouldn't Eddie watch dramas?

_____