PHRASAL VERBS 7

A- COMPLETE THE SENTENCES.

1. When my boss gives an order he expects it to be.....out.
2. Receiving bad news so early really gets me.....
3. It was a good idea, but I'm afraid it didn't quite.....off.
4. I'm afraid that Carol's story about the accident doesn't really.....up.
5. I was so surprised when Harold got the job, I couldn't.....over it.
6. Teresa's new book.....out next week.
7. Someone was .....after you in the sports club yesterday morning.
8. I tried to get an early night, but just as I was .....off, the phone rang. It was my sister with news from her new job.
9. Harry was too embarrassed to.....up the question of who would pay for the broken window.
10. The police didn't .....up Bill's complaint about his neighbours.
11. You are all enough to .....up to you responsibilities. You're not a child any more.

B- COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE CORRECT OPTION.

1. Jill completely fell for my .....(joke/story/ topic)
2. The (conversation/meeting/ dialogue) .....didn't break up until late.
3. It seems that we've come up against rather a tricky .....(idea/ problem/ investigation)
4. It must be getting on for .....(five o'clock/extremely well/ very dangerous)
5. The witness's evidence bore out what .....(Jim had said/ as Jim said/ Jim was sad).
6. I really should get down to .....(my homework/ the weather /in the garden)
7. Unfortunately my .....(plan/ suggestion / comment) didn't quite come off.
8. Mary's new novel doesn't come up to her usual .....(expectation/ standard/ life)
9. Last night I dropped off .....(at 9.30/ from 9.30/ in a while) until 7.00 this morning.
10. When Dylan started speaking everyone fell about.....(in laughter/laughing / in anger)