Should Teenagers Begin Studying Later in the Day?

Complete the missing words in the composition. Use the word bank below.

First of all, totally, I've, return, In conclusion, studying, who, claiming, will, In addition, sincerely hope, to, young, while, have, Therefore, problems _____ recently read an article _____ that high school students should begin _____ at school later each morning and continue studying until evening. I am _____ against such a proposal.

_____, many teenagers participate in extra-curricular activities. Some have jobs _____ others volunteer as counselors in youth movements. If they _____ home in the evening on a daily basis, it _____ not be possible for the _____ people to do any of those things.

_____, schools which _____ already tried changing the schedule encountered difficulties in finding staff members _____ could teach at such hours. Teachers agreed _____ work only when their own children were at school. _____, it's possible that many high-schools would be unable to change the teaching hours at all.

Naomi Epstein©

_____, it is clear that starting high school classes at a later hour in the day would create significant _____for the teenagers, the school and the community. I _____the Ministry of Education will not adopt such a plan.

Naomi Epstein©

