

UNIT 7-"CONSUMERS"

TYPES OF SHOPS IN ENGLISH

1- Write one item you could buy in each of the shops.

- Department store
- Supermarket
- Grocery's
- Greengrocer's
- Butcher's
- Baker's/Bakery
- Fishmonger's
- Chemist's/Drugstore
- Pharmacy
- Newsagent's
- Stationer
- Optician
- DIY store
- Travel Agency
- Hardware shop
- Corner Shop
- Delicatessen
- Bookshop
- Market
- Petshop
- Flea market
- Petrol station
- Shopping Center/ Mall
- Tobacconist
- Flowershop/Florist's
- Jeweller's
- Off-licence shop
- Shoe shop

2- Where can you...

1. buy a newspaper or a magazine?
2. buy a new pair of boots?
3. buy some shampoo or medicine?
4. buy a dictionary?
5. buy a birthday present for a child?
6. get a pair of glasses?
7. buy a battery for your watch?
8. buy a plane ticket to your country?
9. buy most things?
10. buy a birthday card for your friend?

3- Vocabulary

Match the idioms using the word 'shop' to the definitions

1. to shop around
2. to shop until you drop
3. to talk shop
4. to go window shopping
5. to shoplift
6. to shop someone
7. to be all over the shop
8. to be like a bull in a china shop
9. to go on a shopping spree

- A. to discuss work issues in your free time
- B. to tell the police that someone has committed a crime
- C. to be disorganised and confused
- D. to rush around and knock things over
- E. to buy many things (often without thinking too much about the cost)
- F. to look around the shops but buy nothing
- G. to go shopping until you are so tired you can't carry on
- H. to look for the best price
- I. to steal something from a shop

Jumble sale or car boot sale?

Do you know what a car boot sale is? Or a jumble sale? Have a guess.
Read the texts and fill in the gaps with the correct type of sale.

Basically, in a _____ people drive to an open field in the middle of the country somewhere, park their cars in a row, open the car boots, and sell the things they have inside. It's great fun. I love browsing - just walking from car boot to car boot, looking at what's on sale. They are often very cheap, tacky things, but sometimes you get a great bargain. You can exchange something of your own for something from someone else's boot. And you can haggle down the price, which is something you can't usually do in British shops....

Often held in a church hall or local community centre to raise money for a local charity or school, a _____ involves lots of people bringing old clothes and second-hand household items, and selling them very cheaply. It's good fun to root through everything and find something you like. Jumble means a big pile of things in a mess. And that's basically what it is. A pile of old things on a table and two old ladies making tea for everybody.

Jumble sale or car boot sale?

1- Write sentences with the words in bold in the text.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

2- If you went to one of these car boot sales in order to sell some of your stuff, what would you take to that sale?