Primary 3/4

Week 40

The Write Tribe

RECAP PART 1:
ANTICIPATION, FORESHADOW STORY PLANNING COMPONENTS - CHARACTER TRAITS / INCITING INCIDENT / ACTION / STAKES

PART 1

The Write Tribe

Weather -sunny day

Personification (Give human qualities)
E.g The sun playfully peeked out from behind the clouds as if it was playing a game of hide and seek.

Use personification to describe weather

_____

_____

Weather -sunny day

Metaphor (Compare it to something else)
E.g The sun was a glowing medallion in the sky.

Use a metaphor to describe weather

_____

_____

Weather -sunny day

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g The sun was as yellow as an egg yolk that day.

Use a simile to describe weather

_____

_____

The Write Tribe

INTRODUCE CHARACTERS

SKINNY PERSON

Metaphor (Compare it to something else)
E.g She was a walking skeleton.

Use a metaphor

_____

_____

SKINNY PERSON

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g She was as skinny as a needle.

Use a simile

_____

_____

INTRODUCE PLACES

BAKERY

Personification (Give human qualities)
E.g The bakery charmed us with its captivating aroma of sugary treats.

Use personification to describe a bakery

_____

_____

A SPOTLESSLY CLEAN HOUSE

Simile (Compare it to something else using like or as)
E.g The immaculately clean house was as sterile as a hospital.

Use a simile

_____

_____

Complete the foreshadow sentences.

1. Little did I know

_____

_____

2. Nothing could prepare me

_____

_____

3. Never in my wildest dreams did I

_____

_____

4. If only I knew what

_____

_____

5. What would happen later that day

_____

_____

Write a suitable foreshadow for the introduction below.

"Finally!" I blurted out as I reached the mammoth-like shopping mall. Waves of euphoria crashed within me as I saw a sea of people coming in and out of the mall's sliding doors. I had excitedly anticipated the opening of the mall for months. We never had a multi-level shopping mall in our neighbourhood before. I clutched my little sister Jacey's hand and ambled into the mall fantasizing the amazing moments to be had.

_____

_____.

The azure sky conjuring pretty patterns of the beautiful clouds promised a beautiful day. As I sat in the car, I plugged in my headphones and fantasized about the wonderful day I would have at the beach while watching the landscape whizz by. It was my favourite way to relax. Everything was going great until I felt a tug. "Give it to me!" my menace of a sister Judy whined, plucking my headphones away. I did not give in to her. Immediately, a tug of war ensued. "Just give it to your little sister, Harriet!" my mother's annoyed voice shot at me. Anger brimming inside, I handed the headphones to Judy and snarled, "How I wish you'd disappear from my life!"

_____

_____.

ANTICIPATION

The glass fell and broke vs

I couldn't believe what I saw next. → ANTICIPATION
The glass fell and broke.

ANTICIPATION PHRASES
What happened next made my blood boil.	Nothing could prepare me for the next moment.
I couldn't believe what I was seeing	What I saw broke my heart
The next moment was jaw-dropping	Something unbelievable happened next.

Use the anticipation phrases to make the sentences more interesting.

1. The cake I had spent hours baking had met its demise by falling on the floor.

_____

_____

2. The poor old lady fell on the floor.

_____

_____

3. I felt someone grab my hand in the nick of time!

_____

_____

4. I was announced as the winner!

_____

_____

5. My sister broke my favourite toy into smithereens!

_____

_____

6. Tom was stealing from my teacher's wallet!

_____

_____