She used to / would go diving at the beach by the ...

Both used to and would are used to talk about habits in the past. If the sentence has did, use use to. Otherwise, use used to or would.

However, used to is only possible with verbs like be, live and have.

1 Read. Circle the correct form.

1. Did it use to / used to take a long time to get ready for an underwater expedition?
2. The crew used to / use to start each day with a list of things to do.
3. Each explorer use to / used to be responsible for certain items on the list.
4. The first thing they use to / would do was to check that everything was in place.
5. If they were missing something, they would / use to quickly look for what they needed.
6. When did they use to /used to get together and wish each other luck?

Escaneado con CamScanner