

Linguistic task #1: Repaso el vocabulario de los household appliances

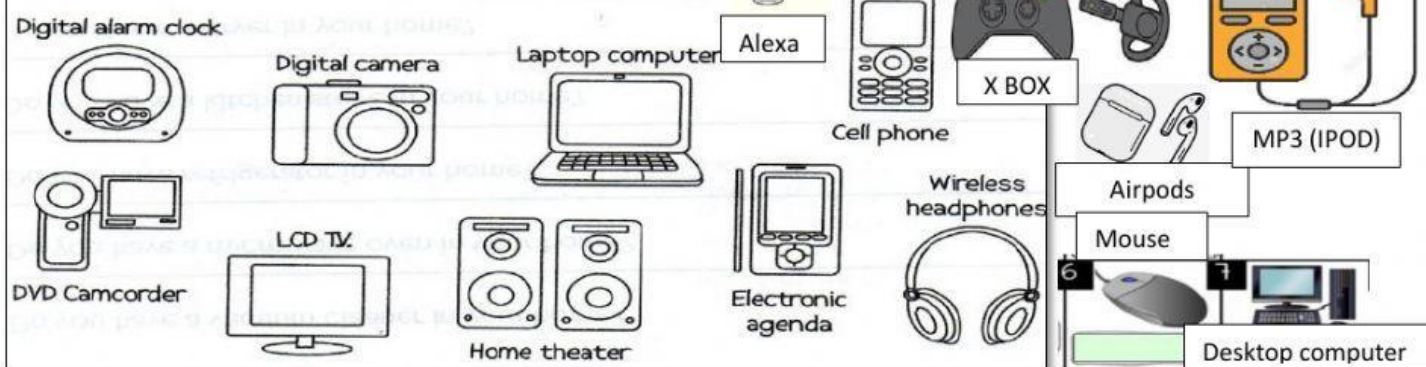

ELECTRONIC APPLIANCES IN A HOUSE

Almost every family in the world has one or more electronic appliances for a specific use. There are appliances that are considered basic, such as a kitchen stove, refrigerator and a washing machine.

There are others considered necessary like a T.V., coffee maker, iron and microwave. Some other families have the possibility to afford "luxury" appliances like an air conditioner, dryer machine, vacuum cleaner, toaster, dish washer and computer.
