1h) More cooking verbs. Do the following worksheets.

2- Grammar.

2a) Do you remember present continuous and imperatives?

To tell recipes we always use present simple and imperatives sentences. Imperative sentences (page 78 Student's book Today 1)

They don't have subject. E.g.

Stop!, Don't fall, Call me, Don't shout, boil, don't burn the sausages.

2b) Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

You are watching a cooking show and you are talking on the phone with a friend. Tell your friend the recipe.

* _____ the strawberries, bananas and milk in a blender. (Blend)

* She _____ the eggs and the sugar first. Then she _____ the milk. Finally she _____. (Mix, Pour, Knead)

* First they _____ spaghettis then they _____ the chicken. Finally they _____ all together. (Boil, Fry, Mix)

* First _____ the butter on the toast then _____ some eggs. Finally _____ all together (Spread, Whisk, Cook)
