LISTENING

HOME INSURANCE

Listen to the dialogue and write the missing words.

A = Insurance agent, P = Pete

A: Allied Insurance. Can I help you?

P: Yes. I need some home insurance.

A: OK. Can you answer _____ questions?

P: Sure.

A: What's your full name?

P: It's Peter Morgan.

A: Are you _____?

P: Yes. But we haven't got any _____.

A: OK, Mr Morgan. Have you got your _____ house?

P: No, I haven't. I've got a _____ in the centre of town, but it's _____.

A: Has it got a garden?

P: No, it hasn't got a garden, but it's got a small _____.

A: Is there a _____ in the apartment?

P: Not a big one, but there's a kitchen area with a _____, a _____ and a _____. But I haven't got a _____.

A: What about _____?

P: We've got a _____. It's valuable because it's very old. And there are two _____, they're made of wood. And we've got a sofa.

A: No _____ table?

P: No, we always eat on the sofa.

A: OK. Now, electrical equipment. _____?

P: Yes, of course. And we've got a music system.

A: _____ computers?

P: Yes, I've got a laptop computer — I _____ the Internet a lot.

A: And have you got a mobile phone?

P: Yes, I have.