Unit 5: Negative prefixes

1. Complete the sentences. Use the negative prefixes: dis-, il - , im-, in-, ir-, un-.

1. She looked ___ happy because some of her answers in the test were incorrect.
2. The number of young people who are ___employed is rising.
3. My great-grandfather couldn´t read because he didn´t go to school. He was ___ literate.
4. I lent you my laptop, but now you´ve broken it. You´re so __ responsible.
5. „The queue in the canteen is really long today. I´m not going to wait"
   „Don´t be so ___ patient.
6. Copying homework isn´t ___legal, but it´s ___honest and __ fair.
7. Don´t order CDs from that internet company. It´s very ___ efficient.
8. Sometimes your work is very good and sometimes it isn´t. You must try not to be so __ consistent.

2. Complete the sentences using negative prefixes and the adjective in the box.

honest	tidy	logical	practical	legible
organised	tolerant

1. You are late again! Why are you always so _____ ?
2. He´s _____. He never tells the truth.
3. It´s _____ to be afraid of spiders.
4. She always wears _____ clothes. Last week she wore her sandals in the rain!
5. He doesn´t like people who are different. He´s _____.
6. What´s the address on this letter? I can´t read it, it´s _____.
7. You never pick up the clothes from your bedroom floor.
   You´re really _____.