

13. What were the Southern Colonies?

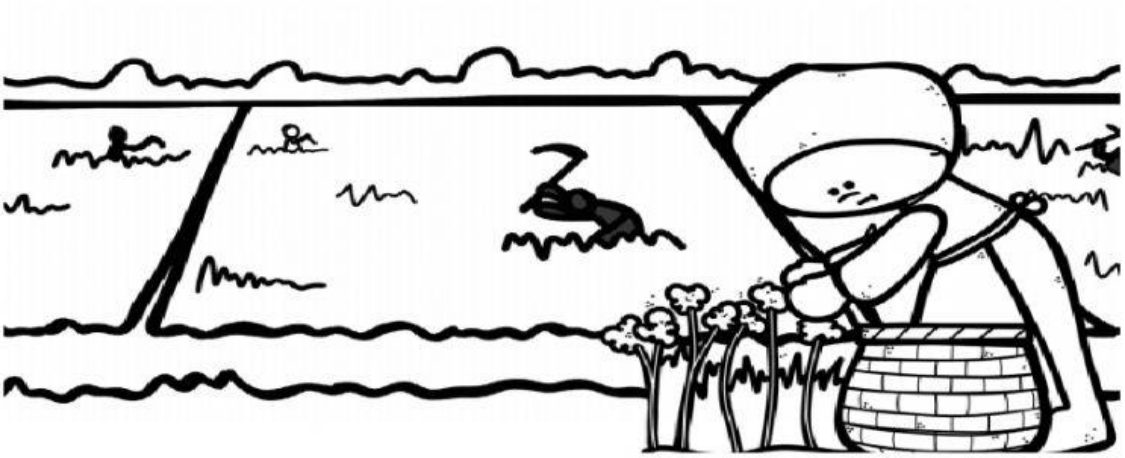
_____ _____ _____ _____

The Southern colonists were farmers and plantation owners.

Plantations were where most of the crops were grown.

14. Where was most of their crops grown _____?

Some of the plantation owners had slaves to work the fields.



The Slaves were treated poorly

15. Who worked the fields of the plantation owners_____?

The goods made in these colonies were timber, fish, dye, fur, and cloth.

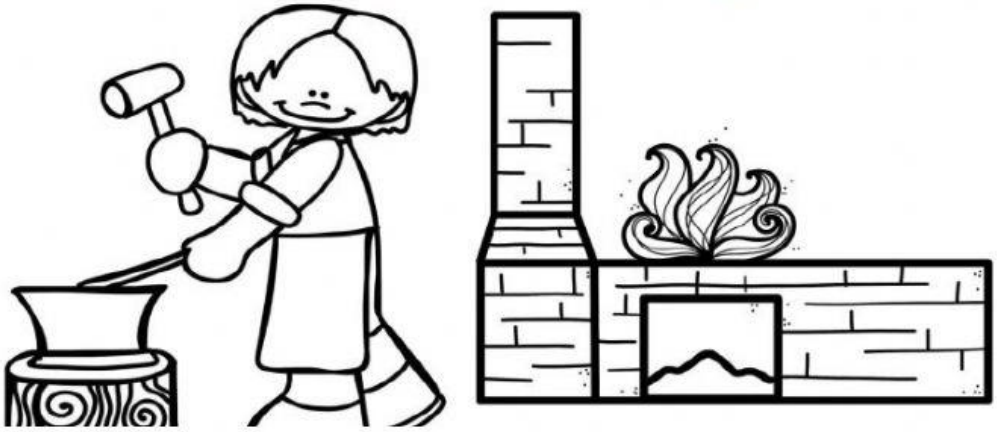
16. What were some of the goods made in the Southern colonies _____, _____, _____, _____?

Farming was made easy in the Southern Colonies, they grew:

cotton, rice, and indigo. Tobacco.

There were many different jobs in the colonial times.

A blacksmith was an iron worker that created metal objects.



17. What did the blacksmith create

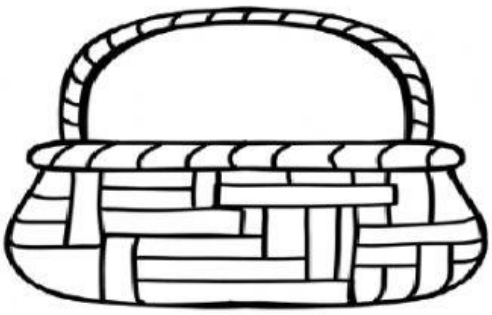
_____ _____.

A farmer grew crops and took care of the land.

18. Who took care of crops and the land

_____?

A basket maker made baskets.



19. Who made baskets _____?

A wood maker made many items from wood.

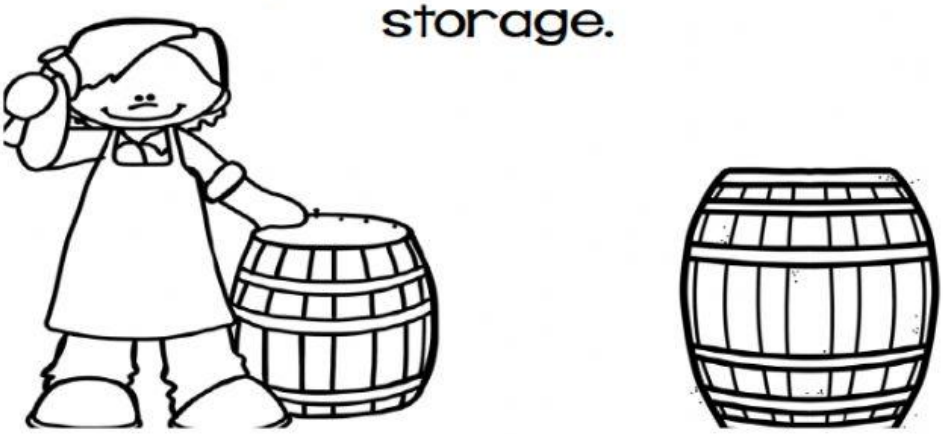
20. Who made items from wood

_____?

A brickmaker made bricks for houses and buildings.

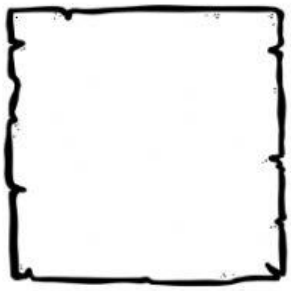
21. What were some of the things a brickmaker would build _____ _____?

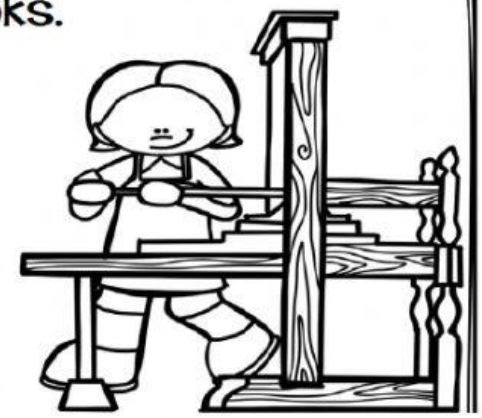
A cooper made barrels for storage.



22. What did a cooper make _____ for _____?

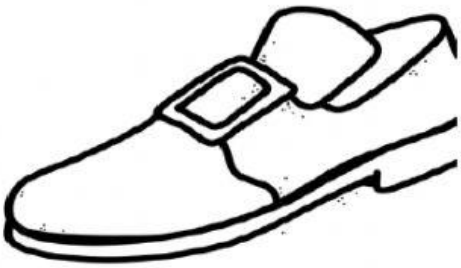
A printer printed newspapers and books.





23. What did a printer print _____ and _____?

A shoemaker made shoes for people.



24. Who made shoes for people _____?