

- Fill in the blanks with an appropriate relative pronoun.

1. Where is the boy won the first prize in the quiz competition? (who / which / whom)

2. I know a man son works at NASA. (who / whose / whom)

3. This is the boy we were talking about. (who / whom / which)

4. This is the watch my father bought me for my birthday. (which / who / whom)

5. The film I watched yesterday was very interesting. (which / who / that)

6. Where is the laptop I lent you? (that / who / whom)

7. The old lady lives in the adjacent flat is a writer. (who / whom / which)

8. Harry Potter, I finished last week, was an excellent book. (that / where / which)

9. bring me the letters the postman left. (that / where / who)

10. I have a garden I have planted many lilies. (where / which / that)

11. Where is the man wants to meet the manager? (who / which / whom)

12. I know a girl has lovely green eyes. (who / whom / whose)

13. This is the child parents work abroad. (who / whose / that)

14. Mumbai, is heavily populated, is a multicultural city. (which / that / who)

15. The man suffered injuries in the accident are undergoing treatment. (who / which / whom)

16. I enjoy reading books have lots of images. (which / that / who)

17. She married an engineer she met on a bus. (who / whom / which)

18. I know a shop they sell dry fruits. (which / where / who)

19. The story she told me was very interesting. (that / which / who)

20. The pup they rescued from a shelter is now doing fine. (which / that / who)