Unit 4: Sustainable Development
Second Conditional
Teacher Javier Martínez & Teacher Pablo Vásquez

Universidad de Playa Ancha

WORKSHEET

NAME: _____ DATE: __/__/____ 10TH GRADE _

SECOND CONDITIONAL

We usually use it to talk about improbable things that could happen in the future.

If + sujeto + past simple, sujeto + would + verbo en infinitivo

Examples:

1. If she were my mom, I would try to make her happy.
2. If you were there, you would have the possibility to save her life.

EXERCISES

I. Complete the sentences with your own ideas.

a) If I were you, I would _____.

b) If she were there, she would _____.

c) If they were angry, they _____.

d) If he were guilty, _____.

e) If you were smart enough, _____.

f) If we were hungry, _____.

g) If she were planning to move, _____.

h) If I were responsible, _____.

i) If he were mature, _____.

j) If she were conscious about Climate Change, _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

II. Using the structure given, reorder the sentences.

a) my mom / try to make her happy / were / If / would / she / I

_____.

b) responsible / say it / If / were / would / he (x2)

_____.

c) would / If / arrive earlier / we (x2) / excited / were

_____.

d) my sister and I / try to explain everything / If / would / guilty / we / were

_____.

e) call me / If / would / they / Malia and Sasha / were / at the hospital

_____.

f) alive / If / try to message me / she / Carla / alive / were / would

_____.

III. Try to be creative and create six sentences using Second Conditional.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

d) _____

e) _____

f) _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS