1. Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

viewing display programme television taste broadcasters

Television 1) _____ is Britain's most popular leisure pastime. 98% of households have colour 2) _____ sets and about 80% a video recorder. The Government is not responsible for 3) _____ content, nor for broadcasters' day-today conduct of business. The independence of the 4) _____ requires them to maintain certain standards: programmes must 5) _____ a proper balance and wide range of subject matter. They must not offend against good 6) _____.

2. Read the text. Mark the following sentences as true or false.

The term "normcore" refers to a modern fashion trend. It's often called "anti-fashion" because the key feature of this style is dressing simple or even dull, for example, white sneakers, zip-up sweatshirts and black trousers. The same styles both for men and women and dark colours are very popular. The key is to look comfortable and effortless. The icons of the movement are celebrities such as Jerry Seinfeld and Steve Jobs.

1) The text describes a new music trend. _____
2) The normcore style is marked by bright colours. _____
3) If you are a normcore, your outfit is rather traditional and normal-looking. _____
4) Some famous people choose to follow the normcore trend. _____

3. Answer the following questions.

1) What do you usually use the Internet for?

_____

2) How often do you write email letters?

_____