A. The Kuskovo Palace was built on the site of an old manor-house under the direction of the Moscow architect Karl Blank (1728-1793). The Palace was built in 1769-1775 in the style of early classicism. The Palace is built in wood, the traditional building material used by Russian architects. The lower floor is built in brick.

B. For many days now, there have been historic and devastating floods in the state of Colorado, in and around the city of Boulder. And it's all because of a huge amount of rain in a short period of time! One area near Denver received as much rain in one day ... as it usually does almost all year. That's an all-time record for that area, according to NBC News.

C. What would you say the top predator in the world is? Lions? Elephants? Whales? People? According to Dr. Martin Nyffeler from the University of Basel in Switzerland, it's ... the spider. If you took every spider in the world and measured how much they all ate, it turns out to be an astronomical 400-800 million tons of prey each year.

D. First Lady Michelle Obama unveiled a new design today showing us what healthy eating looks like. And it's simple. Half your meal should be fruits and vegetables. Some other important parts of her meal plan: - drink water instead of sugary drinks; - avoid oversized portions; - switch to low-fat milk; - compare salt on food packages and go with the ones that have less.

E. The Chicago Cubs won the World Series for the first time since 1908, ending the longest stretch of time for a eam between World Series' wins - over a century. The Cubs had been down three games to one in this best of seven series, the Cleveland Indians being just one win away from winning it all ... three games in a row.

Задание 19. (in class)

Imagine that you are preparing a project with your friend. You have found some interesting material or the presentation and you want to read this text to your friend.
You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, then be ready to read it out aloud.
You will not have more than 1.5 minutes to read it.

St. Bernards have never carried brandy barrels. The dog's mission is entirely different – apart from anything else giving brandy to someone with hypothermia is a disastrous mistake – but tourists have always loved the idea, so they still pose wearing them. Before they were trained as mountain rescue dogs, they were used by the monks at the hospice to carry food, as their large size and docile temperament made them good pack animals.

The brandy barrel was the idea of a young English, who was much favoured by Queen Victoria. He was a renowned painter of landscapes and animals, best known for his painting The Monarch of the Glen and for sculpting the lions around the base of Nelson's Column. Originally, St Bernards were known as Barry hounds, who rescued forty people but was unfortunately killed by the forty-first, who mistook him for a wolf.
