Speaker 1:

The hours are very _____ and I have to work _____, but I like my _____ and I enjoy the _____ of my work. Every day is _____. I like to feel that I'm _____ people. My colleagues are _____ and it makes my job _____. It certainly not the _____.

Speaker 2:

I really _____ my job, although there can be a lot of _____ work or _____ work. And I have to _____ a lot of meetings. Preparing cases _____ a lot of my time and can be very _____. The _____ part of my job is _____ clients. I work for a big _____ international firm, so there are good _____ for _____ and I have to _____ quite a lot, which is really nice.

Speaker 3:

Some people would say it's a _____ job and I _____ it is sometimes, but, actually, it's a very _____ work as well. There is no much job _____. The _____ is good. But sometimes my work can be really _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Speaker 4:

Some parts of the job are not very _____, they are pretty _____. Changing a window, for example, can be quite _____. What I like is _____ with people, on the phone and face to face. My boss is a _____ person, but he is so _____ _____. Some people think I'm a _____, and it's true, I _____ a lot of _____. But I like to _____ job _____ and I'm proud of my work. I hope to become an assistant manager if I move to another _____.

Speaker 5:

What I particularly like is that it is a very _____ job. I can _____ _____. I find it _____ when I meet and interview new people. Also it is very _____. One bad thing is that I have a lot of _____, it makes my job very _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS