Modals of Obligation

Choose the right answer:

1. Seat belts are compulsory here. Every driver (has to – don't have to – is allowed to) wear seat belts.
2. In some schools, students (must – doesn't have to – aren't allowed to) write in textbooks because their books will be used by other students.
3. You can come with me if you like, but you (mustn't – are allowed to – don't need to) come.
4. At my last school, we (had to- didn't have to- were allowed to) wear whatever we wanted, but here we have to wear school uniform.

Choose the suitable modal verb to express the following obligations:

1. It's not necessary for me to wear glasses.

2. It's necessary for us to read the lesson carefully.

3. It's necessary for us to drive the car slowly.

4. It was necessary for me not to drink tea when I was a kid.