1. A(n) _____ is a community of plants, animals, and nonliving things in the area. (page B6)

2. A(n) _____ is made up of all the living and nonliving things that interact in one place. (page B6)

3. The _____ is a large ecosystem in southern Florida. (page B7)

4. Salt water mixes with fresh water in shallow lands called _____. (page B7)

5. A(n) _____ is the group of living things found in an ecosystem. (page B7)

6. A(n) _____ consists of all the members of the same type of organism that live in an ecosystem. (page B8)

Underline the term in the parentheses that correctly completes each statement.

7. The land in the Florida Everglades is (dry, swampy). (page B7)

8. The plants, birds, fish, and other organisms of the Everglades make up a(n) (community, estuary). (page B7)

9. Alligators live only in (cold, warm), wet places. (page B7)

10. A population consists of all the members of the same type of (organism, plant) that live in an ecosystem. (page B8)

11. The Everglades depends on fresh (air, water) flowing from the north. (page B8)