

Matter and its properties

Match the halves

Read and match the halves of the sentences about matter.

Matter has two general properties

Mass is the quantity of matter

The density of an object is the

Everything that makes part of

Volume is the amount of space

Matter has specific properties that an object occupies.

relation of its mass to its volume.

that an object has.

called mass and volume.

such as hardness or elasticity.

the universe is composed of matter.