New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve, also called Old Year's Night, is celebrated on December 31st, the final day of the year. This National day is celebrated with parties and fireworks on New Year's Eve.

People in Spain eat twelve grapes during the midnight bells. People in Italy eat lentils stew for dinner. People in New York go to Times Square just before midnight in the last minute of the countdown to see the "ball dropping". People in France have a special food and they drink champagne.

Many people make resolutions. They promise to do something different or better in the next year. " I will study more" "I won't fight with my brother"... Are you ready for New Year's Eve? What are your resolutions?
