Tom: I'm doing fine. Listen, what are you doing now?

Kate: 6...

A. Oh, yes. I know him. He's a fun person.

Tom: I'm celebrating Mateo's birthday at his house.

Mateo Sanchez is our classmate from Mexico.

Kate: 7...

B. I'm listening to music. Where are you? It's very noisy.

Tom: Right. He always tells jokes. Listen, this is a special party. It's a piñata party.

Kate: 8...

C. Candies! I love candies. And the food? Are they serving Mexican food?

Tom: A piñata is a figure of an animal that people make with paper-mache. They put candies in it. It's fun.

Kate: 9...

D. A piñata party? What's that?

Tom: Of course. I'm eating burritos and quesadillas now. Come to the party. We're having a lot of fun.

Kate: 10...

Tom: His house is on Park Street. Across from the park.

E. Sure, I want to go. Where does Mateo live?

F. I'm fine. And you?
