

Helen Keller

Helen Keller was an American author who has known for helping people overcome their disabilities. When Helen was 19 months old. She got very sick which left her both deaf and blind. Growing up was hard for Helen until she met a talented teacher, Anna Sullivan, who taught her how to communicate. The first word Helen ever learned was "water". Helen Keller become a very famous speaker and author who made it her life mission to help others who were also deaf and blind.

1. Helen Keller was _____ and blind.

2. She was an _____

Teacher - farmer - author - singer

3. What is the name of Helen's teacher?

4. Circle what caused her to become deaf and blind.

5. She is known for _____

