Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form (to+inf.: ing-form or infinitive without to):

1. I hope (go) on holiday to the seaside next summer.
2. My parents arranged (fix) the fridge.
3. We really don't mind (spend) the weekend at home.
4. I didn't like (paraglide).
5. Bob can't stand (listen) to chalga.
6. We would like (have) a cup of coffee now.
7. I think I will choose (work) on the new project.
8. Jane has stopped (talk) to her friend.
9. I was really bad at (cheat) at school.
10. We won't be able to afford (buy) a new fridge.
11. John is going to refuse (send) the necessary information.
12. My friends really miss (communicate) face to face.
13. Jim prefers (speak) English with foreigners.
14. We were spending a lot of time (listen) to music.
15. Unfortunately, we couldn't (avoid) (pay) the fine.
16. This isn't worth (do).
17. It's no use (try) to repair this computer.
18. She won't agree (sell) her car.
19. We are considering (buy) a new car.
20. When we saw him, he was pretending (be) a famous person.