TALKING ABOUT MOVIES

Use the words in the boxes to complete the texts

horror	documentaries	theatre	war	genres	seat
science-fiction	cartoons	popcorn	comedy
action	screen	westerns	fantasy	drink

There are many different types of movies, also called film _____ . Animated films are called _____, a movie that is funny and makes you laugh is a _____. _____ movies are really scary. Exciting movies with lots of guns and explosions are _____ films and those about battles and soldiers are _____ films. Movies about cowboys in the Far West are called _____. Movies about the future and distant planets are _____ movies and those about imaginary places and strange creatures, are called _____ movies. There are also _____, movies about real life.

The place where you watch the movie is called a _____. You buy your tickets, and sometimes also a _____ and _____ and sit comfortably in your _____to watch it. Movies are projected on a large _____.

cameo	actors	star	extras	characters
roles	secondary	director	lead

The people who appear in the movie are _____ . These actors play different _____ or parts. The main actor is often called the protagonist, or the _____. He or she plays the main role, or the _____ role. The people in the story are the _____. There are main characters and _____ characters. _____ are actors who appear in the background, as members of a crowd. Sometimes a famous person appears for a short time in a film. This is called a _____. The person who directs the movie is the _____.

reviews	blockbusters	scenes	setting	critics	sequel	plot

The place and time in which the story takes place is called the _____ , and the story, what happens in the film is called the _____ . The movie is usually divided in many different _____ . Some movies have a big budget; they are usually popular and sell a lot of tickets. These are called _____. When they are very successful, sometimes the producers decide to make a second part of the story, a _____. _____ watch movies and write _____ giving their opinion about the films.