Commas and Introductory Elements (Comma Rule #4)

Select the boxes where a comma should be placed. Some sentences may be correct as written, and no commas are needed.

1. Although the Titans were expected to lose they won on a penalty shot.
2. After Sheila had gone inside I thought about her answer.
3. The night before he left for Alaska he was so excited.
4. As he looked at the monitor I knew something was wrong.
5. Believing she had seen a ghost she ran away quickly.
6. Running is good exercise for those without asthma.
7. Unfortunately we did not see the sign in time to turn.
8. While the machine was printing the paper jammed within minutes.
9. Yesterday Kelly woke up late.
10. Rushing to catch the bus Patrick forgot his hat on the bench.
11. Michael struggled with where to put commas last semester.
12. Though Kyle often laughed at his own jokes no one else thought his jokes were very funny.
13. First you should take a nap.

14. The accomplished F. Scott Fitzgerald criticizes the blind pursuit of wealth in his books.
15. In the movie the hero leaves his home unwillingly.