ALICE'S JOB

A. Read the text.

Boris: Hi, Alice! Long time no see!

Alice: Wow, Boris, it's you! How're you doing?

Boris: I'm great, thanks. What about you?

Alice: I'm OK, just a little bit tired because I work all night.

Boris: Oh, what do you do?

Alice: I'm a nurse at Modbury Hospital.

Boris. That's wonderful! Do you like it?

Alice: To be honest, I don't. It's very stressful, and the salary isn't good enough.

Boris: But, do you work somewhere else?

Alice: Yes. I'm a host on weekends.

Boris: Really? Where do you work?

Alice: In a hotel.

Boris: How do you like it?

Alice: It's interesting. I meet a lot of different people. My co-workers treat me well, and my boss is nice, so I'm happy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Find the three true statements.

Alice is a doctor in a hospital.

Alice makes a lot of money.

Alice has two jobs.

Alice works in a hotel.

Alice's jobs are relaxing.

Alice works at night.

C. Choose true or false.

A nurse's job is easy.	True	False
Alice has a stressful job.	True	False
A host's job is boring.	True	False

LIVEWORKSHEETS