MODAL VERBS

I like to sit in my backyard and think about what I should be when I grow up.
Should I be a doctor or should I be a nurse?
Perhaps, I should be a doctor because there are a lot of sick people in the world I could help.
Maybe, I should become a nurse and work in schools to help children who don't feel well, I would be able to help them too.
My brother told me I should become an artist because I can draw really well. He said artists have a relaxing life and that I could become famous.
My sister said I should become a writer because I really have a good imagination and that it wouldn't be too hard for me to write good stories.
I think the best advice came from my mother. She said I should study to be a teacher because I am patient and like to be with people. I think my mother is right and that is what I should do.

I like to sit in my backyard and think about what I _____(should/would) be when I grow up.
_____(could/should) I be a doctor or _____(would/should) I be a nurse?
Perhaps, I _____(would/should) be a doctor because there are a lot of sick people in the world I _____(should/could) help.
Maybe, I (_____would/should) become a nurse and work in schools to help children who don't feel well, I would _____(should/be able) to help them too.
My brother told me I _____(would/should) become an artist because I _____(should/can) draw really well. He said artists have a relaxing life and that I _____(could/must) become famous.
My sister said I (should/am able) become a writer because I really have a good imagination and that it_____ (couldn't/wouldn't) be too hard for me to write good stories.
I think the best advice came from my mother. She said I_____ (would/should) study to be a teacher because I am patient and like to be with people. I think my mother is right and that is what I _____(would/should) do.

ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS

1.Were does the little girl like to sit?

.....

2.Why should she become a doctor?

.....

3.Why should she become a nurse?

.....

4.What does her brother say she shoud become?

.....

5.What does her sister say she should become?

ESLprintables.com