

Modal Verbs Revision

Complete the following sentences with the correct form of the modal verb from the list. Sometimes more than one modal verb is possible.

must(n't)	(not) have to	can('t)	could(n't)	be allowed to may	might	will	be able to	should(n't)

- 1) You really _____ give up smoking, John.
- 2) _____ I open the window, please?
- 3) _____ she play the piano? Yes, she _____. She _____ play since she was a child.
- 4) Who's that at the door? I think it _____ be Bob: he said he was coming this afternoon.
- 5) £400 for that! You _____ be crazy! I _____ give you £200.
- 6) Do you think I _____ call her?
- 7) I _____ go to the party at the weekend. My parents won't let me.
- 8) When I was a child I _____ go to bed very early but now I _____.
- 9) I wonder if that's Jenny's car. Oh no, it _____ be. She's gone on holiday.
- 10) People who live in glass houses _____ throw stones. (proverb)
- 11) When I was little, I _____ swim, but not very well.
- 12) My doctor has told me that I _____ drink so much whisky.
- 13) John's parents were very strict. He _____ go to a café until he was 16!