Relative Adverbs

- An adverb tells more about the verb. It tells how, where, when, or why an action takes place.

for example: The little pup ran quickly towards his owner.

- A relative adverb introduces a group of words, or a clause, that tells more about a noun. There are three main relative adverbs: where, why, and when.

for example: This is the park where I come and play every evening.
(relative adverb)

Complete each sentence using the correct relative adverb (why, when, or where).

1. I wonder_____camels have humps on their back.

2. Thursday is the day_____we take out the yard waste.

3. Did you ask the teacher_____so many children have low math scores this semester?

4. Dubai is the place_____ Al Dana got her college degree.

5. This is the school_____I learned playing guitar.

6. Two weeks from today is_____I will be receiving my student of the month award.

7. The place_____my friend lives is not very far from my house.

8. I love spicy food, that is_____I go to Thai restaurants quite often.

© Copyright 2014: http://www.biglearners.com. All rights reserved.