

Put preposition next to the correct verb:

|          |  |              |  |             |  |
|----------|--|--------------|--|-------------|--|
| Addicted |  | harmful      |  | responsible |  |
| Angry    |  | shocked      |  | Obsessed    |  |
| aware    |  | unhappy      |  | Sensitive   |  |
| curious  |  | worried      |  | pleased     |  |
| familiar |  | similar      |  | successful  |  |
| good     |  | dissatisfied |  | keen        |  | with    to    about    at    for    of    in    on with    to    about    at    for with    to

 with
 with
 with

Complete the mini-dialogues with the correct prepositions.

Sean Paul is addicted <sup>1</sup> _____ video games!

Helen I know – he's obsessed <sup>2</sup> _____ them. His parents are really worried <sup>3</sup> _____ it.

Max The man next door is really angry <sup>4</sup> _____ me. That boy from number 16 broke his window, and he thinks I'm responsible <sup>5</sup> _____ it because I always play football in the street outside his house.

Claire Are your parents aware <sup>6</sup> _____ who really broke the window?