Vocabulary training

State and Society

Choose the correct option.

1. The company's _____, where important decisions are made, is located in the heart of the city.

a) headquarters b) invasion c) ambassador d) queen

2. Some people associate _____ with happiness and success, but it extends beyond material possessions.

a) bias b) petition c) curfew d) wealth

3. The _____ attended the diplomatic meeting to represent their country's interests.

a) politics b) refugee c) embassy d) ambassador

4. Her positive _____ towards challenges and setbacks inspires others around her.

a) reform b) attitude c) empathy d) coalition

5. The journalist's article showed clear _____ towards a specific political group.

a) behaviour b) attitude c) bias d) upbringing

6. Being _____ allows individuals to embrace diverse perspectives and ideas.

a) broad-minded b) narrow-minded c) prejudiced d) resourceful

7. Demonstrating _____, she showed understanding and compassion for others.

a) petition b) empathy c) nationalism d) ageism

8. _____ ensures that everyone is treated fairly and has equal opportunities.

a) equality b) riot c) coup d) racism

9. The student's _____ led to the development of creative solutions to challenges.

a) bias b) retreat c) narrow-mindedness d) resourcefulness

10. Breaking free from _____, she became proud of her background.

a) trench b) stereotype c) gender d) intervention

11. The enemy forces planned to _____ our territory, but our negotiations kept the peace.

a) defend b) invade c) protect d) withdraw

12. Moving to a new school can be challenging, but with time, you will learn to _____ and make new friends.

a) send in b) stand in c) fit in d) get in English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS