During my school time in Germany, I had many memorable experiences. _____ the initial challenges, I managed _____ the new environment and enjoy my time there.

At first, I had difficulty adjusting to the language barrier, but I made a conscious effort to improve my German _____ practicing with classmates. I also attended language classes _____enhance my language skills.

One thing I particularly enjoyed about the German school system was the emphasis on practical learning. _____ just memorizing facts, we often engaged in hands-on activities and experiments to better understand the subjects. I _____ to listening and asking during the lessons instead of just taking notes in silence. _____ learning things by heart if you don't understand the topic.

_____ participating in extracurricular activities, such as sports and clubs, I made new friends and broadened my social circle. I _____ these activities each week, as they provided a much-needed break from the regular academic routine.

Without the support of my teachers and friends, I would have found it hard _____ feeling homesick. However, their encouragement and friendship made my school time in Germany a truly enriching experience.

In conclusion, my time in a German school taught me valuable lessons about adaptability, friendship, and the joy of learning. It was a unique experience that I will cherish for years to come.

LIVEWORKSHEETS