Prefixes and Suffixes Worksheet

A. Fill in the blanks with the correct prefix. Make any necessary changes

1. He has never been to school. He is ……literate. He can't write and read.
2. Male students ……..number female students in this class.
3. He is so ……..……honest that nobody trusts him.
4. My father is ……..…..partial. He does not discriminate between his children.
5. I'm sorry to ……..……pronounce your name.
6. Children in some African countries are ……..fed. They suffer from hunger.
7. China is an……..…populated country. It has over a billion people.
8. It is ……..…responsible of some students not to prepare for their exams and resort to cheating.
9. Big cities are usually ……..crowded.
10. It's ……moral to smoke in class and expose students to danger.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Complete with the right suffixes. Make any necessary changes

1. Georgia is cap……of helping you with your problems. Why don't you ask her to?
2. Be care……! A car is coming.
3. The best treat……..……..for obesity is doing sport every day.
4. Our factory has installed two video cameras for secure ……reasons.
5. An anonym……person called me twice last night.
6. The belief that things will improve is called optim…….
7. The legs of these trousers are too long. Could you short……..them for me, please?
8. Don't be pessimist……..…….. Everything will be all right.
9. Could you simple ……..……..your instructions, please?
10. Nobody can understand this sentence. It is meaning……
11. Criticize……is useful on condition that it is constructive.
12. He does exercise every day so as to strength……his muscles.
13. The news of his best friend's death sad……..……him.
14. I don't see any similar…….between the two presidents.
15. She works very hard. She has the able……to succeed.
16. For further inform……..….., contact me on this mobile number.
17. Most workers are complaining that they are ……paid.

LIVEWORKSHEETS