	SIMPLE PRESENT	VS	PRESENT CONTINUOUS
USE	We use the simple present to talk about routines and things that are permanent or happen all the time. I control access to the site. She works for the cement supplier.		We use the present continuous to talk about things that take place at the time of speaking, and are temporary (not permanent). We're visiting the site. He's walking through the gate.
EXPRESSIONS	We use adverbs of frequency (e.g. always , usually , often , sometimes , never) or frequency expressions (e.g. every week , every day , once a week , three times a month , etc.) with the simple present to describe how often somebody does something or how often something happens. We usually have about 100 people on site. Sometimes we work in a consortium.		We use time expressions like now , right now , and at the moment , for actions in progress, and expressions like today , this morning , this week , this month , this semester , this year , these days , etc. for temporary actions. Also, expressions like "Look!" or "Listen!". I'm busy. I'm drawing a floor plan right now. We're working for another firm this month.
