1. Choose the appropriate words to complete the sentences

1.The main (character / characteristic) of the play is a man (of / from) honor. 2.Liz (connected / wondered) why I hadn't told her the truth. 3.Mrs Johnson and her family love to (receive / refuse) friends in their house. 4.If you can't find your seats in the theatre, ask (an actor/ an usher) to help you. 5. Hold (on / up) a minute, I'm coming. 6. Jane is very much (alike / like) her sister: they like the same things. 7. He couldn't decide what to do for a long time and (at / in) the end became a music teacher.

2. Choose the prepositions to complete the sentences

at from in of on to with

1. He said he had bought four tickets _____New-York.
2. There is no shop _____the end of the street.
3. People buy the programs _____the usher.
4. Our seats were not _____the stalls.
5. Susy has always been fond_____ballet.
6. The actors appeared_____the stage.
7. They have no connection_____this branch of a family.