It was Saturday. The alarm clock rang. Ann jumped out of bed. She had a lot of things to do. First, she had to help her mum in the kitchen. So she washed up the dishes.

…… Then, it was time to do the washing. Ann put her dresses, blouses and T-shirts in the washing machine. …… All of a sudden, she heard a noise in the next room. Rosie, her cat, knocked a vase off the table.

…… What a naughty cat!

After that Ann still had her Maths homework to do.

……

It took her an hour and a half to do it.

"Now I can work on my stamp collection," she thought happily.

The telephone rang. It was Jane. ……
In twenty minutes, Ann put her jacket on and left home.

Ann had to clean it up.

Next, she had to dust the furniture in her room and vacuum the carpet.

She invited Ann for a walk.

She almost forgot to put her socks in the machine.

She sat down at her desk and did the sums.

1. Ann had to help her mum in the kitchen.
2. She had to dust the furniture in her mother's room.
3. Ann put her jacket and trousers in the washing machine.
4. She heard a noise in the next room.
5. The cat knocked a vase off the table.
6. Ann sat down at her desk and read a book.
7. Jane invited Ann for a walk.

LIVEWORKSHEETS