

Complete the rule with "either", "neither", "so" or "too".

We use __ and __ to agree with something affirmative in another sentence.

We use _____ and _____ to agree with something negative in another sentence.

We use and at the beginning of a sentence,
but we use and at the end of a sentence.