

Who do you think these phrases refer to? Drag them to the right place.

sibling rivalry

play on their own

share the bedroom

spend time with adults

comfortable with being part of a gang receiving all the inheritance develop good social skills

look after their siblings

Comparing an Only Child vs. Multiple Children

Complete the word combinations with the following words aware sick gang rivalry share fight gathering fully

well
perfectly

sibling
political professional

become get
fall

	a room
	secrets
	information

street
armed criminal

	with the brother
	about money
	over small things

hold
attend
organize

Use one of the phrases from each group to complete the sentences Change their form is necessary:

1. They meet to _____ and relive old memories.
2. There is always _____ in multiple children families.
3. Mr Bush was _____ of the importance of this act.
4. The robbery was carried out by a _____.
5. We're _____ to mark our wedding anniversary.
6. The children will _____ quite small things.