Shania Twain - Whose bed ___ your boots ___ under?

Listen to the song, and write the questions in the gaps with the verbs on the right.
The questions are either in the past simple or the preset perfect.

Be careful! Sometimes you need to write the pronoun too

Lyrics	Verbs
Whose bed [1]_____ your boots _____ under?	be
Whose bed [2]_____ your boots _____ under?	be
And whose heart [3]_____ _____ _____ I wonder?	steal
This time [4]_____ _____ _____ like thunder, baby?	feel
Whose bed [5]_____ your boots _____ under?	be

Don't look so lonely, don't act so blue
I know I'm not the only girl you run to
I know about Lolita, your little Spanish flame
I've been seeing you around with Rita, the redhead down the lane

Chorus

Whose bed [6]_____ your boots _____ under?	be
And whose heart [7]_____ _____ _____ I wonder?	steal
This time [8]_____ _____ _____ like thunder, baby?	feel
And who [9]_____ _____ _____ to?	run
And whose lips [10]_____ _____ _____ _____?	kiss
And whose ear [11]_____ _____ _____ a wish in?	make
Is she the one that you've been missing, baby?
Well whose bed [12]_____ your boots _____ under?	be

I heard you were sneaking around with Jill
And what about that weekend with Beverly Hill
And I've seen you walking with long legs Louise
And you weren't just talking last night with Denise

Chorus

Come on boots...

So next time you're lonely, don't call on me
Try the operator, maybe she'll be free

Chorus

I wanna know whose bed, baby
Whoa baby, tell me whose bed, yes I wanna know
You better start talking or you better start walking
