SOUNDS OF RAIN

By: Sharmane C. Miller

Pitter patter, pitter, patter
Sprinkles on my face.
Tiny droplets so crystal clear
They hardly leave a trace.

Swish-swoosh, swish swoosh
Harder now they come.
Beating against the window
Like a giant bass drum

Drip drop, drip drop
Watch them fade away.
As bright colours fill the sky
To say it's time to play.

1. What would be another suitable title for the rhyme? (1)
   a) The changes in the Rain
   b) Getting Wet in the Rain
   c) Colours in the Sky
   d) Playing in the Rain

2. List TWO phrases that tell about the sounds of falling rain. (2)

_____

_____

3. According to verse one, what seldom leaves any marks? (1 mark)

_____

4. What is the noise against the window compared to? (2 marks)

_____

5. When do the drops disappear? (1 mark)

_____

6. In verse three, which TWO words mean the same as "rainbow?" (1)

_____