

Ex. 1 Read the Native American legend and put the verbs in brackets into the past simple.

Long ago in North America there was a terrible famine. A man and a woman(leave) their children in their village and(go) to look for food. The little boy.....(make) his sister a toy bird to help her forget how hungry she was, but the toy bird(turn into) a real bird and it(fly) away! The bird (return) later, carrying some corn in its beak. The children.....(eat) the corn and and they(not/feel) angry anymore. Every day, the bird.....(bring) corn until the last famine (end). The bird.....(find) the children's parents and they(come) back home to the village.

Ex. 2 Answer the questions.

1. Why did the man and the woman leave their village?
2. What did the little boy make for his sister?
3. What did the toy bird turn into?
4. What did the bird bring for the children?
5. Who did the bird find when the famine ended?

