1 Join the sentences. Make one sentence with a similar meaning.

1 People say things. Why don't you ever listen?
Why don't you ever listen to what people say?

2 I tell my mother things. She never remembers.
My mother never remembers .....

3 You're talking about something. I don't understand.
I don't understand .....

4 He always wears dark glasses. He seems pretentious.
What makes him .....

5 I like my teacher. He's got a good sense of humour.
What .....

6 This city is dangerous. You must remember this.
What .....

2 Tick (✔) the correct sentences. Correct the wrong sentences.

1 I can't afford going out this weekend. ☒
can't afford to go out

2 Do you feel like watching a DVD this evening? ☐

3 Thanks a lot. I promise to pay you back tomorrow. ☐

4 I don't mind washing up but I hate to cook. ☐

5 I'm learning driving and I hope to get my licence soon. ☐

6 Imagine not to have a mobile phone. I couldn't survive. ☐

3 Complete the sentence with a verb in the right form. Use the gerund or infinitive + to.

1 Don't forget to lock the door.

2 You must remember ..... your grandmother for your present.

3 I don't remember ..... you could borrow my tablet computer!

4 I feel better since I stopped ..... so much coffee.

5 It was hot so we stopped ..... an ice cream.

6 If he isn't answering his mobile, try ..... the land line.

7 I tried ..... all the questions, but I'm sure I made some mistakes.

4 Match the two parts of the sentences.

1 She's very friendly and enjoys e

2 I had to walk because nobody offered .....

3 Nick and Anna have finally decided .....

4 If you want to save money I suggest .....

5 I'm going to apply but I don't expect .....

6 The instructor told me to practise .....

7 I don't like weddings because I detest .....

a to give me a lift.
b parking the car.
c to get the job.
d wearing a suit and tie.
e meeting new people.
f staying in a B&B.
g to get married.

PHOTOCOPIABLE © Cambridge University Press 2012

LIVEWORKSHEETS