- Proofread (error-correct) the present continuous sentences.
- Find one mistake and type the correct sentence in the box below.
- Use the examples in these diagrams to help you.

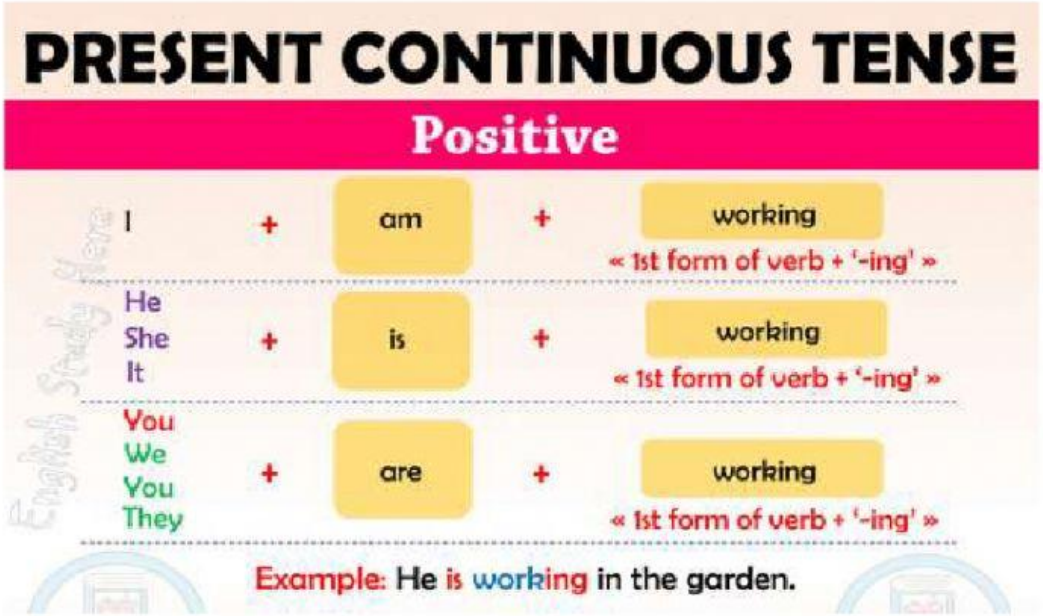
Part 1 - positive or affirmative present continuous



1. Im studying English because I want to start a good job.

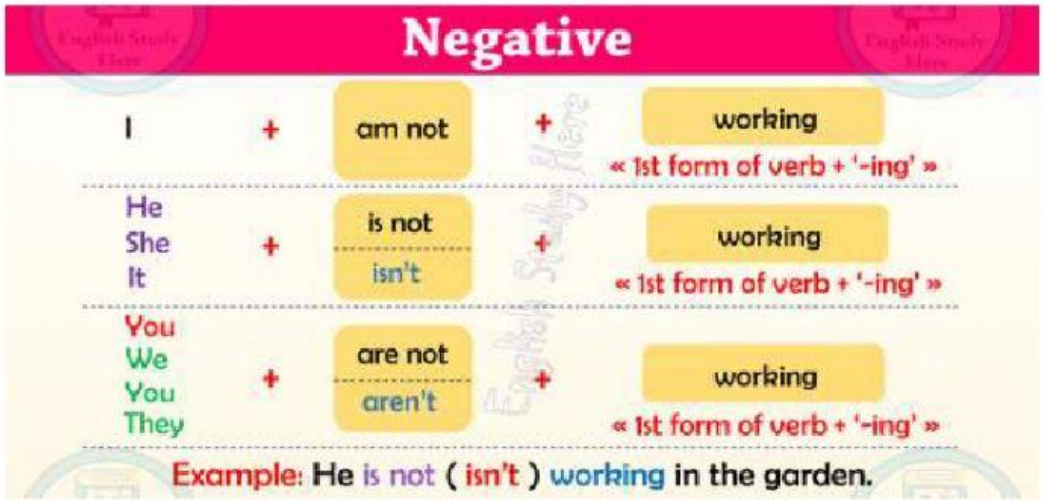
2. Now some learners and I are talks on Zoom.

3. This afternoon my daughter wearing a pretty dress.

4. During the national lockdown all BAES learners are do some online classes.

5. During our Zoom class children is doing home-schooling.

Part 2 – negative form of present continuous

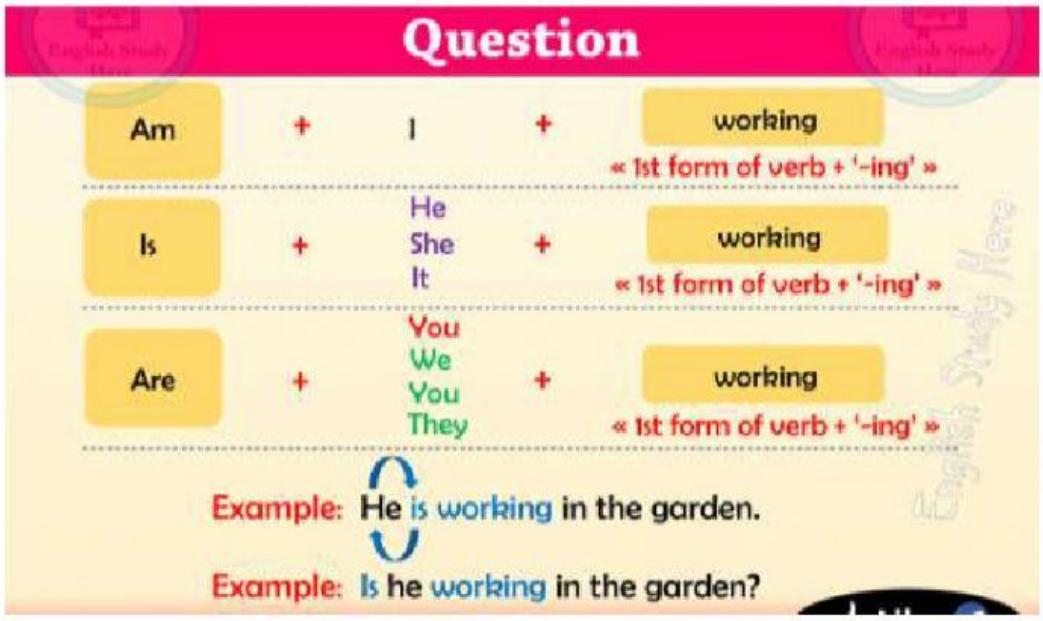


6. I not working at the moment.

7. Sue isn't learn English. She is learning maths.

8. We not applying for the job yet.

Part 3 – question form of present continuous



9. Am doing this correctly?

10. Are they go to the local shop to buy milk?